Eighth Inning.-Moore, after given life by Dolan's muff of his foul, made a base nit to right; Moore forced out at second by Luff's hot-grounder to Rednend, that he stopped beautifully with one hand; Luff home on Clinton's base hit, and he to third on wild throwing; Meath out on fly to Colums; Farrer base hit and Crinton home; Farrell FOR CAIRO AND ST. LOUIS. stole second, and lome on Sullivan's hit to left, but Sullivan tried to get to second and was retired by Dolan's throw to Dillon; Morgan base hit Dillon out on sharp foul tip to E lick; D lancut at first by Farrell's throw to Sullivan; Magner three base hitz and Morgan home; Loftus base hit and Magner home; Collins out on foul to Ettick. The Reds got in two runs this inning, and the Memphis three. Score, eight to four in favor of the Reds. Ninth Inning - Kennedy safe on hit that Collins should have picked up; Raja base hit; Ellick out on fly to Mor-gan; Moore base hit and Kennedy home; Clinton out on grounder to pitch er; Meath out at first on grounder to Redmond. Redmond base hit: Oran base hit; Croft short hit that somebody should have taken in, and Redmond Ocan, Croft and Morgan home on Dil-ion's hit to left field; Dolan out on foul fly; Ditlon home on Magner's base hit; Magner to third on Elnek's throw to second; Loftus base hit and Magner home; Collins safe on Farrell's wild throw, and Loftus out at home; Redmond fouled out. The Reds hit hard and often this inning, and by a good many wild throws they made six runs, leaving the score fourteen to seven in favor of the Reds. The Memphis nine has, like the Louisville nine, played in bad luck, but this game was lost through no fault of the players. The umpiring was a dead give-away, and there were not a dozen parsons on the ground that did not firmly believe that the umpire's decisions were controlled by cutside influence. If they were not, his knowledge of the game of base-ball is decidedly limited. Below we give the score: THE SCURE: ST. LOUIS REDS. dlins, 3d b R. 1 B P.O A. MEMPRIS. Ellick, 24 b. INNINGS. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Totals
